By Taxi

- Some taxi drivers seem to have difficulty knowing exactly where we are. You may need to tell them that Theed Street is off Cornwall Road which is itself off Stamford Street, near Waterloo station.

By Underground

- Waterloo Station is served by the Bakerloo Line (Brown), Jubilee Line (Grey), Northern Line – Charing Cross Branch (Black) and Waterloo & City Line (Turquoise)
- It is best to take the Jubilee Line (Grey), as the exits from the other lines lead you on to the main concourse of Waterloo National Rail station. The Jubilee Line exit avoids you having to go into the main line rail station.
- If you do end up on the main rail station concourse, follow the signs to McDonalds / Starbucks down the escalators opposite platforms 3 and 4 (marked “Exit 2”). This will take you to the exit on to Waterloo Road (see below).
- If taking the Jubilee Line (Grey), follow the exit signs. At the top of the escalators at ground level turn left out of the station concourse onto Waterloo Road.
- Immediately ahead is a pedestrian crossing. Cross the road. You should see the “3i” building in front of you.
- To your left you should see Sandell Street. Walk down Sandell Street until you reach Cornwall Road.
- Turn left into Cornwall Road and then right into Roupell Street (there is a bakery called Konditor and Cook on the corner).
- Walk along Roupell Street and eventually you will see Theed Street on your left. Turn left into Theed Street.
- As you walk down Theed Street you will see a large gated courtyard in front of you. Go through the arch. The FIGO Secretariat is the first building on the right immediately after the arch.
- Upon arrival, please ring the main doorbell, which is the second door on your right as you approach (just before the parking spaces).
